JUDGE HUBBARD

LECTURES TO TUESDAY CLUB ON QUESTION OF CURRENT INTEREST

At the regular meeting of the Glendale Tuesday Afternoon Club held Tuesday in Masonic Temple, Judge Robert L. Hubbard, a well known judge and lecturer of Los Angeles, gave a pleasing address on "The Mexican Question." The hall was prettily decorated with a yellow and green motif, worked out in calendulas and fragrant Chinese lilies.

Judge Hubbard said in part: "The Mexican people would be a wonderful people if they had a chance. Theirs is a story of continued oppression, foreign domination and class rule. History has proven that nations in the making should be left to work out their own salvation. Foreign rule, no matter how superior in type, has always meant the destruction of the race subjected to it. Less than 400 years ago, human sacrifice was demanded by Mexico's religion. Little wonder is it then, that their environment makes them at times inhuman. When we know what the Mexican is, what he wants to be, and what he is fighting for, we view him with different eyes. The Mexican is fighting for his natural heritage, the possession of the land. Foreigners have for years stolen that heritage in vast domains—the best he had. Little wonder that he fears us. In his weakness he follows any leader who promises him his inheritance. Mexico needs charity more than bullets. There are those among us who would have us seize upon the pretext of mistakes wrought through their weakness and crush another people because we can. We have not the right to dominate. How is Mexico to be redeemed? Through our power to assist her with our Monroe Doctrine.— America standing against the encroachments of foreign powers. But all of South America has a little feeling that the United States could and would override Mexico. We should not allow American men to exploit those too weak to resist. When as a nation we are not a party to such, then all Mexico and South America will understand. If we will, we can make of Mexico our equal. If we will not, we can crush, we can destroy Mexico. Preceding the address, Dr. Jessie Russell, Legislative Chairman of the club, briefly explained the Community Property, Moron Colony, and Women Juror Bills, which the Legislative Council is fostering.

Successful unison singing of national airs was enjoyed with Mrs. H. R. Boyer at the piano. At the close of the meeting, Mr. Coots of the Edison laboratories in New York, delighted the members with several beautiful numbers on the Edison machine.

The next meeting of the club, December 26th, will be devoted to the little folks in a Children's Party. All mothers of the club are invited to bring their children, and all other members not so fortunate, are asked to invite two diminutive guests of their acquaintance. Each child is requested to bring some tiny gift, a toy, a book, or some candy to make happy the less fortunate little folks in Glendale and vicinity.

SEVENTY-SECOND BIRTHDAY

Mrs. D. L. Glenn of West Colorado boulevard entertained with a dinner party yesterday in honor of Mr. Glenn's seventy-second birthday anniversary. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Gillespy of Pasadena, Mr. F. S. Johnson of Pasadena, Mr. James B. Hickman, Mrs. David H. Imier and Miss Cora Hickman. A most delightful afternoon was spent, the Glenn home being one of charming hospitality. Mr. and Mrs. Gillespy and Mr. Johnson are old time Ashland, Oregon friends of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn, who spend a good part of their time in that city. And all the guests, with the exception of Mr. Johnson, who is a former New Yorker, were formerly friends in Indiana, where Mr. and Mrs. Glenn were friends of Mr. Hickman fifty years ago.

SOCIETY CHANGES NAME

The Glendale Branch, British Red Cross held its regular meeting in St. Mark's Guild hall on Monday afternoon. This was the first anniversary of the society and the last meeting of the year. All of the hospital shirts on hand were finished and a goodly number of bandages, pillows and mouth wipes made. These will be delivered to the headquarters in Los Angeles this week.

A letter from the Daily Mail of fices in London has been received by the treasurer acknowledging the receipt of $12.50 sent for Christmas hampers and expressing much gratification.

Notice has been sent to the officers of this society from Los Angeles headquarters that owing to the fact that the American Red Cross has prohibited the use of the words, "Red Cross" being used by any other society this society is compelled to change its name and until further orders are received from London this society will be known as the "British Ambulance Society." There will be no change in the work or object of the organization.

At the meeting Monday, Mrs. Frank England was hostess and a pleasant half hour was enjoyed over the teacups at the close of the session. The next meeting will be held January 8, 1917.

GERMANY'S MASTER STROKE

BERLIN HAS NOT ASKED THE NEUTRAL NATIONS TO START PEACE NEGOTIATIONS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
(By Ackerman, United Press Staff Correspondent)
BERLIN, Dec. 13.—Germany has not asked the neutral nations to start peace negotiations. The American embassy understands that Germany has merely asked the neutrals to inform the entente powers that the Central powers are willing to discuss peace. It is up to the Allies to accept or refuse this tender. Diplomats consider this Germany's master stroke. America is asked to send notes to London, Petrograd, Paris and Bucharest; Spain to Belgium and Portugal and Switzerland to Italy. The "Tageblatt" says everyone fully supports the move, as this is perhaps the first step toward peace. If Germany's offer is rejected it is certain that the Central powers will never again take the initiative to end the war.

ALLIES' PEACE TERMS

UNITED PRESS LEARNS TERMS UPON WHICH ENTENTE POWERS WILL CONSIDER PEACE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
LONDON, Dec. 13.—The United Press from various sources secured the terms which are believed to be the only basis upon which the Entente powers will enter into peace negotiations. They will demand of Germany full indemnity for devastated nations, in others evacuation and restoration of all occupied territory, the restoration of Alsace Lorraine to France, the cession of Constantinople Straights to Russia, indemnity for all destroyed shipping, adequate punishment for those responsible for German atrocities. Apparently the disposition of German colonies and the question of limiting Germany's armament are the only ones considered notable.

BERLIN, Dec. 13.—Greek officers have captured Katerini, with 5000 men in the opposing trenches. Having penetrated the line the fighting north of Katerini between the Greeks and the French is continuous.

BROTHERHOOD SUPPER

BANQUET IS FEATURE OF ANNIVERSARY WEEK CELEBRATION

The social event of Anniversary Week in the Presbyterian church was the Brotherhood supper which took place last evening. The dining room was taxed to its utmost capacity by the members and friends of the congregation who wished to do honor to the Rev. W. E. Edmonds and his wife who have done such fine work in the past five years.

The Elders and their wives were in the receiving line to give a cordial greeting, a warm hand clasp and a word of welcome as the guests came into the auditorium. All were made to feel it was good to be there and Christian fellowship was the joy of the occasion. The decorations, effective and appropriate, were provided by Mr. W. J. Clendenin's class.

The supper was well prepared, deliciously cooked, and skillfully served by Mr. T. D. Ogg and his able corps of assistants from the Brotherhood. The universal pronouncement was, it could not have been better. It was perfectly evident that the men of the Brotherhood had received good training in domestic science.

The guests of honor, former pastors and their wives as well as some of the charter members of the church and others, were seated at a specially prepared table: Dr. and Mrs. C. D. Merrill, Rev. and Mrs. F. D. Seward, Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Young, Dr. T. H. Clelland, Rev. H. B. Gage and Miss Gage, Mrs. E. T. Byram, Mrs. J. M. Banker, and Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Pratt.

When the inner man was satisfied came the most interesting part of the whole enjoyable occasion, the historical sketch of the church and the words of greeting from those who had known it through many years.

Mr. W. J. Clendenin was master of ceremonies and gracefully introduced the speakers. Mrs. J. M. Banker gave the sketch prepared by Miss Ruth Byram. The beginning of a place of public worship, in this valley was in 1883 in a two-room school house on the site of the Tropic school building. Here was held a union Sunday school and services alternately by the Methodists and Presbyterians. A short time later in September, 1884, the Presbyterian church was organized with twelve charter members six of whom are now living—four in one family and two who still have their unbroken membership in the church. The first Presbyterian Sunday school was held in the unfinished home of Mr. S. A. Ayers. The first distinctly church social of the valley was a supper at the home of Mr. E. T. Byram on Glendale avenue. The proceeds were used to purchase an organ now in use in the church. The first church building was on the lot on the corner of Glendale avenue and 9th street afterwards sold to the Dunkards, now used by them. Dr. W. J. Young and Mrs. S. L. Ward were among the stated supplies of those early days.

Mr. A. R. Bichenbach, now of Oregon, Ill., was the first pastor, at which time the bell now in use was bought. A part of the funds being given by friends in the east.

Under his pastorate the Ladies Aid was changed to the Womens Missionary Society and the C. E. Society was organized and conducted the Sunday evening services. The mid-week prayer services were held in the homes of the members—Mr. E. T. Byram was the first and for a time the only elder of the church. The names associated with those early days are, Dodds, Mills, Steward, Merrill, Byram, Harris, Ayers, Shearer and many others.

Early in the history of the church it was found the location on Glendale avenue was not sufficiently central, the present location being given by Mr. Byram and Mr. Patterson and a small building erected at much personal sacrifice, consecration and faithful work on the part of the members. After short pastorates by several godly men Mr. S. L. Ward was called and installed as pastor. The work continued to grow and flourish under his leadership. The notable accomplishments were, the raising of the Occidental scholarship fund, and the erection of the present building. He continued with the church until 1911 when the present pastor, Rev. W. E. Edmonds was called and his work began on Dec. 10.

Mr. Clendenin then presented Mr. Edmonds a handsome desk as a token of the esteem in which he was held by the Elders, Deacons and Trustees. While much surprised, Mr. Edmonds in a most appropriate manner thanked them for their kindness and for all the love and appreciation shown

AT GLENDALE HIGH

STUDENTS PLAN FOR SCHOOL PAPER—SENIOR GIRLS TO GIVE PLAY

A calendar of events, a sport column, a dramatic column, a society column, a Cynthia Grey department—all these and more will feature Glendale High School's new weekly. Tuesday this was announced following an enthusiastic meeting in the English room. Plans were laid for the first issue to come out the first Thursday after the holiday vacation.

Miss Knepper, head of the English department and faculty critic of the new paper, gave many helpful suggestions. The plan of publication was outlined by the editor, Kenneth Beldin. Mr. Cowan, proprietor of the Evening News, has graciously offered a half page each week in his paper. This plan has been found successful in many other schools.

Can you solve the mystery? Why! haven't you heard? A prize is being offered to anyone who can guess the name of the new school paper. A snappy name has been selected and the person who guesses it will get a yearly subscription free. This contest closes when 1917 begins.

Thursday is the date set for the big Dutch fun-fest. Plans have been completed which promise to make it the greatest rally the sour kraut brigade of Glendale High ever held. Just leave it to the Dutch.

Students of Cicero who will soon be initiated into the mysteries of The Comites are wearing purple and gold bows. Woe be unto he who loses his little bow, for he will meet an unpleasant end.

Thomas A. Edison entertained the students of the school Tuesday. Mr. Moyses called a special assembly right after noon recess and, after a few announcements, some of the world's best artists performed for the assembly by means of the wizard's latest re-creator of sound. A representative from the Edison laboratories told how Mr. Edison had succeeded in perfecting the new machine. The music was excellent, and the story was interesting. Thanks, Mr. Moyses, for the little treat.

"Men Not Wanted" is the title of a play being rehearsed by members of the Senior girls dramatic class. Margaret Boucher, stage manager, reports rapid progress in the sketch which will be produced some time in January. The cast includes Marjorie Imier, Mona Butler, Evangeline Hunchburger, Earnestine Lyons, Esther Schremp, Mildred Wight, Florence Heacock and Catherine Phillips.

Mrs. Gibson is planning a treat for Friday when the music department will give a recital. Outsiders are cordially invited. The program will begin at 12:45.

Mrs. Rebecca Lacey of 135 S. Kenwood will entertain the members of the Glendale W. C. T. U. Friday afternoon, Dec. 15. Report from National Committee will be given. Meeting will be full of interest from start to finish.

him and his during the past five years.

Dr. Seward, the next speaker, spoke of the esteem in which Mr. Edmonds was held by all his fellow workers in the Presbytery. He also paid a tribute to the pioneers of the church, who laid the foundation of a work still growing.

Mr. Ballentine, a former elder, recalled the liberality of the church through all its history.

Dr. Clelland spoke of the fidelity of the former elders and the church membership.

Mr. Edmonds read letters from Rev. S. L. Ward of Tracy, Cal., Dr. A. B. Prichard and Mr. S. C. Ayers, expressing regrets at not being able to be present and wishes for continued success and blessing upon the work done by the church. Dr. Gage urged the people to continue to uphold their pastor, and reminded them that a strong gospel called for a strong response along all lines.

Dr. Merrill recalled his work in the days of small things and returned thanks for this day of great things and large achievement for the church.

Dr. Young the last speaker brought the message "Behold what God hath wrought." Thirty-three years of service in the Presbyterian church in Southern California had enabled him to see small beginnings grow into large accomplishments by the good hand of God upon the work. Christ has been and is the life of this church is the secret of all that has been done.

After singing the Doxology Dr. J. R. Pratt pronounced the benediction. This brought to a close one of the most interesting and enjoyable occasions in the history of the church.

USE OF THE SCHOOLHOUSE

Many opinions are expressed in regard to just what meetings and entertainments the public school building should be used for and there is great ignorance on the part of the public in general in regard to the law governing this matter. Edward Hyatt, state superintendent of Public Instruction in speaking of this matter says, "In the first place let us understand that there is a vast difference between a school and a schoolhouse. A school is a human thing composed of teacher and pupils. A schoolhouse is insensate, material, built of stones or bricks. Many things may properly be done in a schoolhouse that would be entirely illegal in school."

"For instance, our laws and constitution are very strict and decided in prescribing that nothing of a sectarian, partisan or denominational character shall be taught in the school, directly or indirectly. This has always been upheld to the letter by the decisions of the courts and by the rulings and opinions of the judicial and executive officers. Religious societies cannot be formed under school auspices, with school membership. The Bible cannot be used as a school text. Outside Bible study cannot be given credit in a school course. Partisan political activities are improper in schools, such as the propaganda of the Republicans, the Socialists, the adherents of Wilson, Prohibitionists, etc. Yet none of these matters is forbidden in a SCHOOLHOUSE—provided that the trustees (or board of education) in their judgment and discretion choose to permit it. From time immemorial, the school house has been the public hall or meeting place of the community, in many cases the only one. The trustees must protect the school house for its primary purposes, the education of the young, and must not permit it to be used for anything that would interfere with that. But otherwise, in their judgment and discretion, the trustees are entirely free to permit the school house to be used by the Methodists, the Catholics, the Jews, the Single Taxers, the Democrats or anybody else upon such terms as they prescribe."

"There is no mistake about this, nor any doubt in regard to it. There is a long line of precedents and decisions and rulings and opinions on file, every one to the same effect. The main point in the whole matter is that the care and use of the school house is in the hands of the school trustees, who are elected by the people for that very purpose. They are to use their judgment and to do what they believe for the best interests of the school first and for the community second. No one has any right to deny them this right of judgment. The opinion of the attorney general or the state superintendent or the district attorney can be asked if desired, the same as in a horse sale or a land deal—and it has a similar effect. It has no legal right and the trustees are not obliged to follow it."

"The social center law, passed a few years ago, declares that each school house shall be a social center, for the use of the people of the community for social purposes. This, however, doesn't remove the care and responsibility for the school house from the trustees. Still, it all rests in their judgment and discretion. The good intent of the social center law can only be carried out in harmony and co-operation with the board of school trustees."

"Perhaps the actions of the trustees may seem inconsistent or illogical, high handed or arbitrary. That is natural. Some uses of the school house may be good in one place and bad in another, or good under some auspices, and bad under others. For these reasons, the matter is left in the hands of the local trustees to be adapted to local conditions and each case decided on its own merits."

LOYALTY TO CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The Evening News is slow to express an opinion on many subjects that come before the people of Glendale. The reason for this is, that it is a very easy matter to talk but it is not so easy to say something that is good sense. As conditions exist at the present time in reference to the Glendale Chamber of Commerce there seems to be need of some one saying something and saying it right out loud and emphatically that every one may hear what is said.

The little, petty differences that come between the success of the Chamber of Commerce and some of the present and ex-members are too silly to be referred to. One excuse after another is offered by those who fail to take any interest in this organization. With some it is the building in which the meetings are held, with others it is the business in which the secretary is engaged, with others it is because the president is not engaged in business in Glendale, with others it is because the secretary is a member of the Board of City Trustees, with others it is because the president speaks as he thinks, with others it is because the Glendale Evening News representative is always present at the meetings, with others it is because there is too much politics connected with the Chamber, with others it is because they are too mean and niggardly to pay their dues, with others it is because they have not been educated to see the need of an organization of this kind working together for the good of the community. What is needed is to throw away all petty jealousies and childish actions, pay up back dues and have upmost in mind the supporting of a right live Chamber of Commerce.

The Evening News has always taken an active part in the work of this organization and will continue to do so regardless of who the officers may be. It is a well known fact that a dozen active members are worth more to the city than two hundred members who take no interest more than to find fault with every act of the Chamber.

THOROUGHNESS IN EDUCATION

Thoroughness in all kinds of work is what counts in accomplishing things. Half doing things is expensive and unsatisfactory. Therefore when boys and girls are getting an education emphasis should be placed first on accuracy and second on rapidity. Everything worth doing is worth doing well.

UNITY LODGE ENTERTAINMENT

The entertainment and dance given last night by Unity Lodge No. 368, F. and A. M., at Masonic Temple was a most successful and enjoyable affair. There was a large attendance and an exceptionally good program was rendered, all the numbers responding to the hearty encores.

A piano solo, "Autumn," by Chamade, was pleasingly rendered by Mrs. Roy Masters, and Mrs. Calvin Whiting's vocal solo, "Nanina," was greatly enjoyed. Among the most pleasing numbers on the program were the readings by Miss Carolina S. Abrams, who is the dramatic teacher at the Polytechnic high school in Los Angeles. Miss Abrams' readings included: (a) "Kiss Her," by Thomas A. Daly; (b) "Circumstances Alter Cases," by Paul Dunbar; (c) "End of the Century," by Edmund Vance Cook; (d) "The Moderate Drinker," by Thomas A. Daly; and "An Opera" by George Ade. Mr. Alvin Willmertz favored the audience with a violin solo, "Souvenir," by Drdla.

The graceful fancy dancing of Miss Lois Naudain was greatly appreciated and enjoyed. Her dance, "Zicato Polka," was given under the direction of Miss Edith Lindsay. Two charming vocal solos were rendered by Miss Zeta Duncan: "From the Land of the Sky-Blue Water," by Cadman, and "The Star," by James Rogers. A saxophone solo by one of the members of Stammers' orchestra of Los Angeles was also a number giving much pleasure.

Following the program a social dance was enjoyed, for which Stammers Orchestra furnished the music, and punch and wafers were served.

MARK KEPPEL SPEAKS

The Parent-Teacher Association of the Intermediate school, instead of their usual afternoon meeting Monday entertained the fathers in the evening. Mark Keppel, county superintendent of schools, gave a very splendid talk on needed legislation. A quartet, composed of the following fathers, sang several selections that were greatly appreciated: Messrs. Yarrick, Beers, Abell and Franklin. Mrs. Greenwalt, chairman of the membership committee, gave a few remarks, inviting the membership of the fathers as well as the mothers. Following the program a delightful social time was had, and refreshments were served, consisting of apple pie a la mode and coffee and cream.

STUDIO TEA AND MUSICALS

A very delightful studio tea and musicals was given Saturday from 4 until 6 by the following ladies of the Hensel School of Expression at Blanchard Hall: Miss Ina Whitaker, of Glendale, piano; Mrs. Henley Burring, soprano; Miss Lalla Flagg, violin; Miss Lucy Hummel, reader. The handsome rooms were prettily decorated in yellow with yellow-shaded lights. Tea was served during the afternoon. The four hostesses gave an artistic program which was enjoyed by the sixty or seventy guests present. Several ladies from Glendale were guests of Miss Whitaker who was assisted in receiving by her sister, Mrs. Reginald Whitaker.

BOOTH FUNERAL THURSDAY

The funeral of R. A. Booth of Eagle Rock will be held by the local lodge of B. P. O. E. at the Seavern-Letton Frey Undertaking Parlors, at 2 p. m., Thursday. Members of the lodge are requested to meet at the undertaking parlors prior to 2 o'clock Thursday.

THE TIMID ONE

An officer in the army, noted for his bravery, laughed at a timid woman because she was alarmed at the noise of a cannon when a salute was fired. The brave officer subsequently married that timid woman, and six months afterward he took off his boots in the hall when he came in late at night.—London Telegraph.

AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

Four Glendale men had a narrow escape from serious injury Tuesday evening while returning from LaCanada where they had gone to purchase fruit. F. W. Kinney was driving his car and he was accompanied by W. F. Richardson, Mr. Goldstone of Louise St., and Mr. Linden of Isabel street. When coming down the long hill from LaCanada something happened to one of the hind wheels and in making the sharp turn the machine slid and struck a rock pile and was overturned. All the men were severely shaken up and bruised but none of them were seriously injured. All the spokes were broken out of one of the rear wheels of the car. A passing machine brought the injured men to their homes here.

CO-OPERATION

A late pedestrian on Dartmouth street was approached by two ugly looking yeggs with this greeting from one, while the other menacingly wielded a slab of wood, stolen from a lumber pile:

"Say, feller! me 'nd my partner was a plannin' on plank steak. We got th' plank an' all we ask of you is a stake."—Boston Advertiser.

The Marshall, Ill., Herald of recent date reports one of the most remarkable accidents on record. Mrs. Harold Bright, wife of the County Superintendent of Schools, was standing by her husband while he was putting up some stove pipe. A joint slipped from his hand and fell, cutting off her nose. The severed portion was picked up at once and a doctor, hastily called bound it in place. At last accounts it was growing fast and only an ugly scar remains.

I. S. Brown, younger son of Mrs. O. L. Kilborn, 1317 Lomita, is at Thornycroft Hospital, recovering from an operation for appendicitis, performed by Dr. Young on Monday. It was a very critical case, the appendix being found to be in a twisted condition, coiled under the intestine and pressing against the liver. The patient is making a remarkable recovery and with the splendid care and nursing he is receiving, will soon be on his feet again if no complications ensue.

CLEMENTS-DeLAPP

Miss Frances DeLapp of Huntington Park became the bride of W. C. Clements last Thursday at Riverside, where the bride accompanied by her mother, Mrs. B. H. DeLapp and a few friends had motored, presumably for a day's outing. After luncheon at the Glenwood Mission Inn they returned to the home of the bride's mother, 141 North Malabar street, Huntington Park.

Great was the surprise of a few of her most intimate friends who gathered at her home Saturday night to find they were attending a reception instead of a wedding. The spirit of the occasion was entered into by all, and a pleasant musical evening was enjoyed. Numerous and beautiful and useful gifts were received by the bride.

The home was beautifully and artistically decorated with pink carnations and ferns. At the close of the evening all sat down to a daintily laden table. At each corner was a corsage bouquet of Cecil Bruner roses to which was attached the at-home cards. Mr. and Mrs. Clements will reside at the De Luxe apartments in Glendale.

MUSIC SECTION STUDIES OPERA

The music section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club met at the home of the curator, Mrs. E. W. Kinney, 1223 West Seventh street on Friday afternoon. Mrs. Ethel Graham Lynde, who is the instructor for the section, gave an interesting talk on the early opera and read from the preface to Peri's opera, which he composed in 1600—"Orpheus and Eurydice." In the preface he spoke of his original idea being the speaking or story telling in music. Mrs. Lynde brought out the fact that he had the same ideas as were advanced many years later by Wagner as new. Contrary to this, in the intervening years when the Italian school flourished, their idea was that everything must give way to melody. For instance, they would be singing about a murder with all sorts of trills and embellishments and the words did not always fit the music.

Mrs. Fullerton read an excellent paper on the beginning of the overture. She brought out the fact that the first overture was called a tocatto which was simply a flourish of keyed instruments, merely introducing the opera. Gluck was the first composer to conceive the present style of overture, which indicates as a rule the sort of melodies which are to follow in the opera. As illustrations, Mrs. Fullerton played the tocatto by Scarlatti, Mrs. Jones gave a selection from Purcell's opera, "The Indian Queen," composed in 1692, and Mrs. Prey played the overture to Il Trovatore by Verdi.

This opera will be taken up and studied systematically, beginning with the first meeting of the section after the holidays. Other operas will be studied that will be heard here later on in the season. The lessons are very instructive as well as interesting and all should make it a point to attend these meetings.

NOTICE

The Young People's Branch Federation are to give a box social at the home of Mrs. I. W. Gleason, 1110 W. 30th St., Los Angeles, at 7:45, December 15. A good program will be provided. Some very special numbers by splendid artists is to be one of the surprises in store for those present.

Miss Doughty who sang so beautifully at the last meeting of the Glendale Branch on Dec. 5th, at the home of Mrs. John Paul, 533 S. Orange St., has charge of the program and this alone assures something good. Glendale Branch is striving for first place in the efficiency contest, and as promptness and good attendance count heavily it is desired we have a good showing at all our Federation meetings. Girls! bring a box for two—Boys! come prepared for a good time. Take University car to 30th street, walk three-fourths of a block west, and you will find a jolly crowd at 1110 W. 30th south side of street.

SPIRITUAL CHURCH

TROPICO TRUSTEES

CITY GUARDIANS HOLD SHORT, LIVELY SESSION

The trustees of the city of Tropic met in regular session Tuesday evening at 7:30, with the following officers and members of the board present: Trustees Peters, president of the board; Henry, Alspach, Seal and Veselich; City Clerk Mrs. Coleman; City Attorney Shaw; City Engineer Wattles and Health Officer Mabry. Minutes of the last meeting read and approved.

A communication was received from the Pacific Light & Power Co., containing a detailed account of the improvements for the betterment of the service in Tropic during the month of November, said work, etc., amounting to $780. The city seems to have no way of checking up this work and some seem to think that these high items of betterments of the service will have to be reckoned with at some future time in settling the matter of rates for the city. However, the statement was ordered filed.

A petition signed by several hundred citizens was presented to the board, praying that the board of trustees use all honorable means to have the Pacific Electric build a passenger depot at Cypress street. The matter was discussed by the board and also Mr. Davenport spoke in favor of the petitioners, some of the board feared that if a depot is built at the Cypress street crossing that the stop at Tropic avenue would be abolished, but Mr. Davenport informed the board that when the franchise was granted to the Interurban Company, it was stated that the stop established at Tropic avenue should never be eliminated.

The petition was referred to trustees Veselich and Seal for investigation and in the meantime the city attorney was instructed to look up the conditions of the franchise.

Mrs. Brown of Victor Court addressed the board in regard to the unsanitary condition of certain chicken corral and rabbitries in the Victor Court neighborhood. The city marshal was instructed to have the parties, living at 536 Victor Court, remove the objectionable matter and comply strictly with the ordinance governing such matters.

The fire chief informed the board that he was in need of some rubber blocks for the tires on the fire engine. On motion of trustee Henry the chief was ordered to purchase a supply of the rubber blocks.

The city attorney reported that the matter of Smith, which was a jitney-ous case carried to the Superior Court, had been decided by Judge Craig in that court in favor of the city and that the defendant had appealed the case to the district Court of Appeals and the case would come up for hearing Friday, Dec. 15th. The city attorney was instructed to represent the city in the case and a sum of $25 was voted as a fee for same.

Trustee Seal, reported that considerable complaint had been made, concerning the expense of street inspection. It seemed to be the opinion of some that the salary of the street inspector was entirely too high for the work done and on motion the clerk was instructed to look up the expense of street inspector Bullis on certain jobs and compare them with the wages paid to inspector Framen, and make a comparison as to cost per foot of street improved, and report at next meeting.

The president of the board was authorized to employ the necessary labor to prune the trees in the city park ways.

The following claims were allowed and ordered paid:

ADVERTISING SURELY PAYS

Further evidence of the fact that it pays to advertise. A negro over in Brunswick was sentenced to be hanged. He had succeeded in "passing up" one execution day by conveniently escaping from jail about 3 o'clock of the morning set for his execution. He was gone for several days and when he was finally caught the sheriff had no authority to swing him off because the day set for the execution had passed. This made it necessary for the man to be resented and this was promptly done. He was to hang this time somewhere about the middle of October.

But the negro seems to have been pretty smart and he had a smart lawyer. They determined to make one more effort to save the life of him who seemed destined in a very short time to dangle around in the air.

They wanted to reach the public's eye and ear and they decided to advertise. So they bought a page in one of the daily newspapers of Brunswick and told the black man's story to the people at home. It set the folks to thinking. Probably they concluded the negro had not been so much in the wrong after all as to demand the taking of his life. His statement made a better impression in print than it did when the defendant went upon the stand in his own behalf. The advertisement made such a good showing that a fight was started in behalf of the man and the governor recently commuted his sentence to life imprisonment.

By using the newspaper columns the negro saved his spinal column. It certainly pays to advertise.—Savannah (Ga.) Press.

EXPERT OPINION

A man who kept a road house in Rhode Island, says the Public Health Journal, was called upon to testify in a suit as to the number of cubic yards that were handled in some filling work near his place. He showed very little knowledge of the matter and his idea of a cubic yard was so indefinite that it seemed doubtful whether he knew what the term meant. To make its meaning clear the judge said, "Listen, witness! Assume this inkstand to be three feet across that way and three feet that way and three feet in height; what would you call it?" "Well, your honor," replied the witness without hesitation, "I should say it was some inkstand."

SHE WAS HASTY

"You didn't write your wife for five years, and yet you express surprise that she got a divorce." "Well, I dunno as I oughter be surprised. She allers was hasty."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

An exchange tells a story of a boy who went to market with a sack of rabbits and lingered around town all day. When asked by his mother why he had not sold the rabbits, he said no one had asked him what was in the sack. How many merchants are like this boy? They have plenty of goods for sale, but fail to tell the people what is in the sack.

THE BAREFOOT BOY

Blessings on thee, little man, Barefoot boy, with cheek of tan! With thy turned-up pantaloons, Any thy merry, whistled tunes; With thy red lip, redder still Kissed by strawberries on the hill; With the sunshine on thy face, Through thy torn's brim's jaunty grace;

From my heart I give thee joy—I was once a barefoot boy! Prince thou art—the grown-up man, Only is republican. Let the million-dollared ride! Barefoot, trudging at his side, Thou hast more than he can buy In the reach of ear and eye,— Outward sunshine, inward joy; Blessings on thee, barefoot boy!

Oh, for boyhood's time of June, Crowding years in one brief moon, When all things I heard or saw Me, their master, waited for, I was rich in flowers and trees, Humming-birds and honey-bees; For my sport the squirrel played, Plied the snouted mole his spade; For my taste the blackberry cone Purpled oved hedge and stone; Laughed the brook for my delight, Through the day and through the night,

Whispering at the garden wall, Talked with me from fall to fall; Mine the sand-rimmed picket pond, Mine the walnut slopes beyond, Mine, on bending orchard trees, Apples of Hesperides! Still as my horizon grew, Larger grew my riches too; All the world I saw or knew Seemed a complex Chinese toy, Fashioned for a barefoot boy! —John Greenleaf Whittier.

THE PROSE PERIOD NOW

"Here's a postal card from my husband," remarked Mrs. Dobson. "He's out of town, you know." "What does he say?" asked Mrs. Dubwater. "Am well. Home Tuesday." And when that man was courting me he used to write me poetry by the yard." —Birmingham Age-Herald.

POWER OF LOVE

So long as we love we serve. So long as we are loved by others I would almost say that we are indispensable. No man is useless while he has a friend.—Stevenson.

WELL ANSWERED

Restaurant Patron (caustically)—I am glad to see your baby has shut up, madam. Mother—Yes, sir. You are the only thing that's pleased him since he saw the animals eat at the zoo.—Puck.

In one of his early sermons the new army chaplain lamented the fact that many men spent their evenings at the club. "The club," he said, "is a place for bachelors. It is not right for a married man to pass the evening away from home while his poor wife sadly rocks the cradle with one foot and wipes away tears with the other."

CRUELTY OF A MOTHER

Mrs. Jones was much perturbed by a missive she received from her sister in Boston.

"Jacob," said she to her husband as she read, "I call this downright cruel."

"What's the matter?" asked Jacob. "Why, in this letter Mary tells me she gets help in raising her children from a mother's club. I do believe in a slipper sometimes, an' a good birch-in' doesn't do a child any harm, but I never used any club on my offspring!"

Among the clerks in the office of one of the cabinet members at Washington is a very dull young man who seems never to be able to do anything without making mistakes.

"Why do you keep that fellow?" asked a colleague one day. "He seems a perfect fool."

"Well," said the other, "the fact is, he is one of the most useful clerks I have. Before I issue an order I always have him read it. If he can tell what it means I am sure that there can be no chance that anyone can misunderstand it."

BEANS

The bean is comparatively new as an edible. Our common bean is a native of South America and was introduced into Europe, whence it came to this country during the sixteenth century and now is represented by over 150 cultivated varieties.

QUITE LIKELY

"Miss Booful won't marry me. She's trying to sell stories to the magazines and says she's wedded to her art."

"Just hang around awhile, old boy, and the first thing you know she'll divorce her art for non-support."—Chicago Herald.

LIKE A ROCK TO US

There are friends who are to us like a great rock in a weary land. We flee to them in the heart of parching days and rest in their shadow. A friend in whom we can confide without fear of disappointment; who, we are sure, will never fail us, will never stint his love in serving us; who always has healing tenderness for the hurt of our heart, comfort for our sorrows, and cheer for our discouragement—such a friend is not only a rock of shelter for us in time of danger, but is also as rivers of water in a thirsty land, when our hearts cry out for life and love.—Selected.

If you prepare a dish of food carelessly, you do not expect Providence to make it palatable; neither, if through years of folly you misguide your own life, need you expect divine interference to bring round everything at last as if you had done right.—John Ruskin.

We would do well to get our kindnness done while they will do good, giving cheer and encouragement, and not keeping them back till there is no need for them.—Dr. J. R. Miller.

CHANCE TO WIN A PRIZE

Persons with unique ideas and artistic ability are afforded a great opportunity in the New Years day tournament of Roses Parade at Pasadena to win prizes. An unusually attractive prize list is being prepared. The Tournament of Roses officials are striving to make the coming parade notable in every respect as the football game between the University of Pennsylvania and the University of Oregon is expected to attract the greatest New Years day attendance yet seen in the Crown City.

Those making entries in the pageant are cautioned to bear in mind the fact that nothing is permitted of a commercial or advertising nature. Floral beauty, when the east is shivering with cold, is the impression most to be conveyed to the spectators. Artificial flowers are not permitted.

Following the herald, police, grand marshal and his aides and directors of the Tournament of Roses association, will come the official entries from the various Southern California cities participating and the boards of trade. The hotel division, which will have twelve magnificent entries, will be next in line this year. The divisions following will provide space for decorated touring cars and roadsters, electric automobiles, one and two-horse vehicles, pony vehicles, coaches, floats of all classes, saddle horses and saddle ponies and novelties. There are many fine saddle horses in Southern California and some of the best of these are always seen in the Tournament of Roses parade.

WHAT IS HAPPINESS?

Happiness is the greatest paradox in Nature. It can grow in any soil, live under any conditions. It defies environment. It comes from within; it is the revelation of the depths of the inner life, as light and heat proclaim the sun from which they radiate. Happiness consists not of having, but of being; not of possessing, but of enjoying. It is the warm glow of a heart at peace within itself. A martyr at the stake may have happiness that a king on his throne might envy. Man is the creator of his own happiness; it is the aroma of a life lived in harmony with high ideals. For what a man has, he may be dependent on others; what he is, rests with him alone. What he obtains in life is but acquisition; what he attains is growth. Happiness is the soul's joy in the possession of the intangible.—Wm. George Jordan.

A scientist claims that a man ought to be able to live for 250 years if he ate nothing but bananas. Would it be really living with nothing else but bananas for 250 years.—Exchange.

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING

Persistent judicious and intelligent newspaper advertising counts for the success of the business institution doing the advertising. Newspaper advertising is one of the departments of legitimate business. There must be something to advertise if advertising is to bring results. Advertising is similar to the motor of an automobile, it is prepared to do its work providing there is a business frame work, chassis, wheels, etc. Hand-in-hand with advertising must go a substantial stock of goods properly displayed and then there must be a capable salesman. There is little need of a man who does not possess business qualifications to spend money for publicity.

She had two boys. The mother wished not only to give them a serious idea of her desire to make them good, but also to make clear to their minds the gravity of the task before her. At the end of a particularly touching adjuration five-year-old Francis was suddenly overcome with the impossibility of ever attaining his mother's ideal.

"Don't try to make us good, mother," he said earnestly. "Just shoot us."

We live in deeds, not years; in thoughts, not breaths, In feelings, not in figures on a dial. We should count time by heart-throbs. He most lives Who thinks most, feels the noblest, acts the best. —Bailey.
